

Session 4: Group B

1. Brainstorming on vulnerable sectors
2. Ranking of vulnerable sectors
3. Identified vulnerable groups (why they are vulnerable)
4. Formulated mitigation policy and plan
5. Discussed the roles of the involved intuitions in developing mitigation plan for agroculture

Vulnerable sectors	Vulnerable groups	Mitigation policy and plan	Who plays which role
Agriculture	-Small scale farmers crop producers and -livestock breeders Poor and marginalized groups through migration	Efficient water use and rehabilitation and modernization of existing irrigation systems: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • institutional measures • capacity building at all levels (water harvesting and other water saving techniques) • introduction of drought resilient species • insurance measures • diversification of income 	Ministry Agriculture and Water Economy (lead formulation,) Hydromet (monitoring) MinEnv MinEconomy (international cooperation) MinFinance (budget planning and allocation) Private sector Research institutions, University (recommendations and research) Extension services (dissemination of information) Farmer and water users associations (on-the ground implementation)
Energy	Population (urban and rural) Industrial consumers	Promoting energy efficiency and renewable energy and diversification of energy resources
Forestry	Forest villagers	Forest fire prevention

	(through less forest services and fires) Population in affected areas through forest fires	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • monitoring of meteo information relevant to fires • action plan Afforestation and forest protection belts Introduction of drought resistance forest species
Tourism	Tourism agencies (subjective)
Biodiversity			